MEN OF MAINE.

An Exciting Christmas Episode at Bangor.

EXCITING SCENE AT BANGOR.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE STAR.
BANGOR, Dec. 26.—An exciting scene took place in this city yesterday afternoon. Major E. W. French, a clerk in the Adjutant General's office, arrived here from Augusta with orders from Gov. Garcelon to take one hundred and twenty stand of arms from the arsenal, where all the arms of the State are kept, and carry them to Augusta. Major French perfected arrangements for their transportation on the Maine Central Road. He then secured two teams and loaded the arms. The teams were stopped in their passage by an excited mob in front of the Whig office.

The reins of the horses were seized and the drivers ordered to stop. An immense crowd had assembled, and the excitement was intense. Major French conferred with General White, of the First Maine Regiment, and after consultation with Mayor Brown it was decided, in order to preserve the peace, not to transport the arms further. Major French ordered them removed to the Arsenal. The excited populace were addressed by Editor Boutelle. Public feeling runs very high, and the escape from bloodshed was very narrow. Major French was not accompanied with any one, and returned to Augusta on the afternoon train to confer with the Governor.

PREPARATIONS FOR DEFENSE AT AUGUSTA.

CHRISTMAS DAY

Among the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans and Elsewhere.

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHAN HOME.

SPECIALS TO THE STAR.
KENIA, O., Dec. 26.—Christmas was a holiday of real enjoyment to the six hundred wards of the State at this institution. In the evening services were held in the chapel, which was very handsomely decorated with evergreens and flowers. Two Christmas trees reaching from the floor to the ceiling were loaded with presents. Prayer was offered by Rev. B. W. Childlaw, of Cincinnati, who also delivered a short and appropriate address. The singing by the Home Choir was excellent and very much enjoyed.

The old soldiers at the National Home, Dayton, O., sent over eighteen hundred different articles as gifts to the orphan children of their departed companions in arms. These articles were carefully selected and of real value, which were gratefully received by the children—a worthy offering, worthily bestowed.

At the close of the Chapel service these presents were distributed among the six hundred happy recipients, whose hearts and hands bore testimony of the good time enjoyed on Christmas day and evening.

MONTREAL, Can., Dec. 26.—Christmas day was universally observed throughout the Dominion yesterday, and business was entirely suspended. The weather was beautiful, with a sharp frost. Sleighting was splendid and the skating rinks were in full blast.

BLAKE BLAZED AWAY.

Fatal Consequence of Celebrating Christmas.

Special to the Star.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 26.—Yesterday Herbert Blake, aged fifteen, was celebrating Christmas by shooting a cheap cast-iron pistol. He offered a comrade who carried an umbrella a nickel if he would permit Blake to shoot at it. This was accepted and Blake blazed away, not being aware that Willie Arnold, aged twelve, was beyond the umbrella.

The bullet sped through the umbrella, and striking Willie on the forehead penetrated his brain. He was taken home, and the physicians say that he will die.

THE HOG-HACKERS.

Situation at the Stock-yards in Chicago To-day.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—There has been no special change in the Union Stock-yards' strike. The out and out Union butchers say they have $25,000 in their treasury, and can stand it as long as the packers can. Others say that it is only the more stubborn Unionists that thus stand out, while the majority would prefer to go to work.

Fowler Brothers' large packing-house opens up to-day with several thousand men; Armour & Co., with a still larger one, will probably resume the first of next week; and thus the back-bone of the strike will be broken.

These large establishments say they will employ all the non-union men they can get, but no union ones, unless they give up their refractory tendencies. They have no doubt that all the men will gradually resume their old places.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Noon.—Everything is quiet at the stock yards to-day. Fowler Brothers have resumed killing with six hundred non-union men. A number of special police were on duty to protect them in case the union men should attempt to interfere with the workers.

There was, however, little anticipation of any disturbance. Armour & Co.'s buyers were on the look-out for hogs, so as to be ready to resume on Monday.

There is rumor that the militia are to be ordered to the stock-yards. It can not be traced to any reliable source. Probably no such order has been given.

The popular wish is that should the militia go out there without proper authority, or when there is no necessity for their presence, the butchers may pitch into and give them a sound thrashing.

Sixteen Feet of Water at Pittsburgh To-day.

Prospects for Another Shipment of Coal.

Special to the Star.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Dec. 26.—Noon.—The two rivers have put the stage of water up to fifteen feet, the height reached at 7 o'clock this morning. So far not more than seven towns of coal have gone out. Shippers will not run the risk arising from ice out of the Allegheny until they know more of the weather to come.

Disasters are reported as follows: Last night the coal-boat of J. C. Risher was run into by the floating wreck of a barge, and sunk in Pool No. 1. The B. D. Wood landed last night at Economy. Part of a coal-fleet broke away from the Superior mill here, and one man on it was nearly frozen. He reported two of the fleet sunk at Davis' Island Dam.

The present water enables coal-boats to get out of the Monongahela, the first time since April last. Should there be little ice from the Allegheny, shippers will get out on the present water 5,000,000 bushels, about half of which goes to Cincinnati.

The Tom Dodsworth struck the right hand pier of the channel at Beaver Bridge and sank one float. Another craft yesterday broke from the mooring on shore and drifted down a short distance, but was saved. The water is now falling here and at headwaters.

PEACE AND WAR.

Gen. Grant Welcomed To-day by the Universal Peace Society.

National Associated Press to the Star.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 26.—This being the last day Gen. Grant will spend in this city, it was deemed proper by the Universal Peace Society to call upon him and express a formal welcome home.

One of the parlors of the Continental Hotel was set apart for occupation. The members of the society gathered there at 10 o'clock. General Grant was escorted into the room by Alfred D. Lore, who, after taking a position at the end of the room, delivered an earnest plea for peace.

In answer to the address Gen. Grant said that although he had been brought up to the profession of arms and had participated in nearly all the battles of the late war, there never was a time when, in his opinion, there should not be some way of preventing the drawing of men into a struggle in which they had no feeling.

He looked forward, he said, to the day when there would be established a court which would be recognized by all nations and which would be looked to for a settlement of such differences of opinion as might exist without the necessity of resorting to arms and the keeping of large standing armies.

Rev. Dr. Rogers then came forward, and in a neat speech presented to General Grant a large framed photograph of Lucretia Mott.

FROM THE CORONER'S OFFICE.

Sudden Death—The Gilroy Cutting—Fatal Accident.

In the case of Thomas Mullen, the contractor, who died suddenly last night at Seventh and Central avenue, the Coroner ordered a post-mortem examination and had the inquest set for to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The case of Peter Gilroy, who was stated in Wednesday's Star died from the effects of a stab with a knife in the hands, as it is alleged, of Wm. Orner on Harriet street, is set for hearing this evening.

Mrs. Jane Neski, who lived with her son Thomas, a plumber, at Brickett Alley and Court street, met her death, Wednesday evening, while coming down from Price's Hill in a buggy.

She was about to drive her horse over the M. & C. Railroad crossing at Eighth street, in front of a coming train. The flagman tried to stop the horse, which dashed up the track, the buggy being caught by the pilot of the engine. Mrs. Neski was also caught by the pilot and received such injuries that she died in a few minutes afterwards. The body was taken home and the inquest set for 10 o'clock this morning.

A large amount of testimony was taken this afternoon in the Neski case, but the Coroner was unable to decide, owing to the absence of some important witnesses, whether the flagman was to blame or not for holding back Mrs. Neski's horse while she was crossing the track. The verdict will be rendered to-morrow.
